GENERAL NEWS.
Commissioner Wilson, of the General Land Office, has just received a highly interesting communication from the Surveyor General of Colorado, in which it is reported that the production of gold now reaches one hundred thousand dollars per week, and is constantly increasing, and unless something unforeseen happens, mining will now resume its regular channels, and the crop of gold become reliable.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes: "There is good reason for believing that at the grand Plenary Council of the Roman Catholic Church, which is about to assemble in Baltimore, an effort will be made to extend a formal invitation to the Pope to make the United States his home, in the event of such a turn in political affairs in Italy as would render his stay in Rome undesirable."

The steamer Jennie Brown, from Montana, arrived at St. Joseph on Tuesday with about a million dollars in gold-dust on freight and in the hands of the passengers. Yesterday the Laelia arrived at the same place with a million and a half in treasure, and a large amount in the hands of the passengers.

Secretary McCulloch has written a letter declining to speak in Indiana on account of a pressure of official engagements, in which he says: "In the unfortunate controversy that has arisen between the President and Congress, I stand with the former."

In the Superior Court for Bristol county, Conn. David Silvester, of New Bedford, was convicted, last week, on a charge of refusing to allow a colored person to play billiards in his saloon. The case has been carried to the Supreme Court on a point of law.

Five cases of poisoning occurred in Troy, New York, last week, from children eating what is commonly known as Jamestown weed or Thora apple, which abounds in the numerous vacant lots throughout that city.

There has just been erected in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Massachusetts, a very elaborate and beautiful monument to the memory of William E. Harnden, the founder of the express business in America.

A wholesale and retail liquor dealer of New York vanished a few days ago, leaving twenty thousand dollars in unpaid bills unprovided for, and having previously disposed of his entire business.

Gen. Butler, in his speech to the soldiers in convention at Pittsburgh, calls for the head of Gen. Lee. Gen. Butler seems determined to antagonize with Gen. Grant, in peace as well as in war.

The President has appointed Thomas Finnan, of the District of Columbia, consul to the Island of St. Helena. Mr. Finnan has just returned from Canada, where he has filled two similar positions.

The cable across the Straits of Northumberland, connecting New Brunswick with Prince Edward's Island, was successfully laid by the steamer Medway on Tuesday last.

The many friends in this State and the District of Columbia of the Rev. Michael Slattery, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, in Baltimore, will regret to hear of his death.

It is said Santa Anna is busily engaged in political combinations for the expulsion of Maximilian.

AN ENGLISH CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.
There is a prescription in use in England for the cure of drunkenness, by which thousands are said to have been assisted in recovering themselves. The receipt came into notoriety through the efforts of John Vine Hall, commander of the Great Eastern steamship. He had fallen into such habitual drunkenness that his last earnest efforts to reclaim himself proved unavailing. At length he sought the advice of an eminent physician, who gave him a prescription which he followed faithfully for some months, and at the end of that time had lost all desire for liquor, although he had for many years been held captive by a most dangerous appetite. The receipt, which he afterwards published, and by which so many other drunkards have been assisted to reform, is as follows:
Sulphate of Iron, 5 grains,
Magnesia, 10 grains,
Peppermint Water, 11 drachms,
Spirit of Nutmeg, 1 drachm.
To be taken twice a day. This preparation acts as a tonic and stimulant, and so partially supplies the place of the accustomed liquor, and prevents that absolute physical and moral prostration that follows a sudden breaking off from the use of stimulating drinks.

VICTORIA'S FIVE DAUGHTERS.—Queen Victoria has five daughters. The oldest is the wife of the Crown Prince of Prussia. She is destined to become the future Queen of Prussia. The second, Alice, is the wife of the Prince of Hesse-Darmstadt, whose principality has been lately absorbed by Prussia. The third, Helena, became recently the wife of the Prince of Teck, who is a prince without a principality. Two remain unmarried—Louise, who is in her eighteenth year, and Beatrice, who is in her fourth. What is to be done with Louise, now that most of the Protestant German Princes have been ousted from their petty thrones by Prussia? There is only one Protestant Prince now available for royal conjugal purposes, and he is the brother of the Princess of Wales, King George of Greece. Mr. Gladstone is, consequently, to proceed to Athens to enter upon this delicate negotiation. Her proposed husband is a mere youth, who dances well, and is fond of good cigars, and is tolerably good looking.

THOMAS E. BALLARD, }
The undersigned take pleasure in announcing to the traveling public (as well as to city boarders) that they have returned to their old business again, and from this day they are ready to cater to the taste and comfort of all who may favor them with their patronage.
They have purchased all the furniture in the establishment, all of which is of the very best quality, and selected with great care from the best furnishing houses in New York, within the last twelve months, and much of which has never been unpacked; indeed, the hotel is furnished in the most superb style.
The BALLARD HOUSE is new, and contains one hundred and twenty pleasant and well ventilated lodging rooms, all of which have grates. The parlors and public rooms are large and convenient; the building is commanding, and acknowledged to be one of the best ever constructed in the Southern States; and all together offer advantages rarely met with in a public hotel.
Our table shall always be generously supplied with the best the market affords, and with the delicacies of the season and the choicest of wine. The BAR-ROOM is an elegant one, and shall be furnished with the best of liquors, etc., etc. We pledge our undivided attention to the business, and expect from our old friends, ladies and gentlemen of Virginia, and the whole country, their support, and hope to receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

The Garden being a pleasant resort, within reach of all, I have determined, as far as my part, to keep every thing in the strictest order, so that their shall be nothing to mar the pleasure of my guests.
The larder will always be filled with the best the market affords—furnished at a fair living price.
My arrangements are such that I will be
